

ELKS TO REMEMBER ABSENT BROTHERS

Local Lodge Holds Memorial Services Today.

AN IMPRESSIVE PROGRAM

Services Will Be Held in the New National Theater—Notables Will Speak.

The memorial services of Washington Lodge, No. 15, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will be held in the New National Theater this afternoon. The services will be interesting and impressive. An attractive program has been arranged.

Since the founding of a local branch of the order in this city, February 12, 1882, its growth has been rapid in membership and in popularity. The local branch of the order has acquired a home of its own, and many have been helped by its efforts.

Four members of Washington Lodge died in the past year. They are William H. Danvers, Daniel O'Brien, Michael Gallagher, and L. E. McPherson.

The music for the memorial will be furnished by the Marine Band. The opening ceremonies will be conducted by Bro. Jesse S. Jackson, exalted ruler, assisted by the officers of Washington Lodge. This will be followed with prayer by the Rev. William H. Chapman.

The principal address will be made by the Rev. J. A. Hinch, O. P., who will speak on "Charity." An address on "The Good of the Order and Its Missions," will be delivered by John H. Fort, past grand trustee and past district deputy of New Jersey.

Memorial Ode.

Among the vocal selections will be "Lead, Kindly Light," which will be sung by the Memorial Ode, composed of the following: Arthur E. Middleton, director; Miss Aurelia Dickinson, organist; Mrs. Sidney P. Hollingsworth, Mrs. Charles Bayly, soprano; Mrs. Dana C. Holland, Mrs. D. Olin Leech, contraltos; Harry B. Stevens, Thomas L. Jones, tenors; Roland B. Rodrick, baritone; Arthur E. Middleton, basso.

"Break On Thy Cold Gray Stones, Oh Sea," will be sung by Arthur E. Middleton, and "Beautiful Home of Paradise," by Mrs. Hollingsworth.

After the closing services, which will be conducted by Exalted Ruler Jackson and the officers of the lodge, the Rev. Dr. Chapman will invoke a benediction.

Typographical Union Will Remember Departed

Annual memorial services of Columbia Typographical Union, No. 12, will be held in the Typographical Temple at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Those who have charge of the ceremonies are Philip S. Steele, W. W. Weber, Harry O'Donnell, E. S. Wild, and Wiley H. Davis.

The theme of the services is expressed in the words of the prophet, "As we loved them in life let us not forget them in death." Those who will deliver addresses and take part of the meeting in the service today are H. W. Davis, Joseph E. Ratcliffe, James B. Williamson, A. B. Proctor, Arthur Jacobs, J. Thomas Miller, F. H. Rose, B. F. Entwistle, E. D. Klopfer, Zidon E. Ross, Edward Drew, O. S. Miller, Frank M. Sweet, C. E. Clark, H. B. Grigg, E. W. Patton, A. K. Munnich, H. L. Davidson, George A. Plummer, A. P. Marston, Sam F. Elwood, D. J. Quinn, W. P. Skelly, H. P. McKevitt, W. A. Liscom, W. A. Hartman, J. K. Marks, and Thomas Doonan.

MURDER FASCINATES DAKOTA SCHOOL GIRLS

YANKTON, S. D., Dec. 2.—A strange infatuation conceived by some eighteen high school girls, daughters of respectable parents here, for Sam Carr, colored, convicted of murder, has made it almost impossible for Sheriff Wright to keep the prisoner in jail.

A few nights ago he discovered the girls giving Carr roses and delicacies through an outside window, late at night. Now he announces he has evidence that these girls gave Carr tools with which he almost cut his way out of jail recently.

CITIZENS' ASSOCIATIONS PLAN BIG MASS MEETING

Session Will Be Held to Urge Many Needed Improvements for the District.

These will be a meeting at Metzger Hall next Wednesday afternoon of the representatives of the various citizens' associations and members of the executive committee appointed at the mass meeting last Sunday at Brentwood. The object of this meeting will be to make arrangements for the big mass meeting in January.

When the citizens met at Brentwood last Sunday an executive committee was appointed, and one of its duties was to arrange for the joint meeting with the representatives from the other associations. The meeting Wednesday afternoon has been called for 4:30. Each of the various citizens' associations will have a representative there.

The executive committee has under serious question the matter of urging an invitation to meet members of the local committee, at some point on G street, during some hour of the day and take a ride over the line to see for themselves just what the patrons of the line submit to.

KATIE O'CONNOR MISSING.

Local police last night were requested to look out for Katie O'Connor, seventeen years old, who is missing from her home, 124 Third Street, Georgetown. The girl was formerly employed in the Pittsburgh Cafe, but has not been seen there or at her home since Thanksgiving Day.

LANE-BECKETT.

A pretty wedding was witnessed last Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Beckett, 1825 M street, when their daughter, Miss Mayme E. Beckett, was married to Sumner Lane, of Elizabeth City, N. C., the Rev. F. J. Grimke officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Lane left for their future home in North Carolina at 6:30 p. m.

CALEB POWERS THANKS KENTUCKY REPUBLICANS

Famous Prisoner Wrote State Party Men Living Here in Reply to Sympathy.

The Kentucky Republican Club met last night at Champion Council Hall, 322 Louisiana Avenue northwest.

Ex-State Representative Ray Yarbery, who was a member of the Kentucky Legislature at the time of the Taylor-Goebel contest, and who was the only Republican member of the committee that tried the contest case, told of his experience on that committee.

Henry Taylor was elected president, and Henry Clay Neal was chosen vice president. Milo Shanks was secretary of the meeting.

Arrangements were made for a reception for Representatives Bennett and Edwards, the new Republican members of Congress from Kentucky, January 6. A letter was read from Caleb Powers, the famous Kentucky political prisoner, who thanked the club for resolutions of sympathy sent him recently.

COOKING AS FINE ART AT PURE FOOD SHOW

Lecture to Be Delivered During Exposition by Mrs. Lilly Haxworth-Wallace.

The management of the National Pure Food Show and Industrial Exposition has secured Mrs. Lilly Haxworth-Wallace for a series of lectures on the "Art of Cooking." Mrs. Wallace comes here fresh from the series of triumphs in various Eastern cities where she has been delivering her lectures.

In each city her audiences have been made up of some of the leading women of the city and in numbers they have always taxed the capacity of the halls in which they were held. The great practical value of Mrs. Wallace's lectures to all housekeepers has been thoroughly demonstrated again and again, and in presenting her to the women of Washington the management of the exposition feels that it should receive a hearty support in the patronage of these lectures.

In connection with each lecture Mrs. Wallace presents to her audiences a series of recipes, each set particularly adaptable to the subject of the day's lecture. The lectures are demonstrated with the use of gas and electrically equipped kitchen and the subject on which she lectures is carried out by the actual cooking of the dish under discussion. Mrs. Wallace invites her audiences to ask any questions which they see fit and is always glad to explain any matters which have been perplexing to the amateur or experienced housekeeper.

Her lectures will be given each afternoon in the lecture auditorium of Convention Hall and are free to all attending the afternoon openings of the exposition. Her subjects include such matters of general interest as the making of bread and biscuit, deserts, pastry, salads, the proper use of the frying pan and the showing of a number of ways in which the chafing dish can be made to be performed daily and profitable service. The women of this city are cordially invited to attend these lectures.

The big show will be opened at 7:30 tomorrow night by Dr. Wiley, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry. The management announces that 500 full-sized packages of goods exhibited will be given away free each night during the exposition to ladies purchasing tickets. Tomorrow night will be Egg-o-See night. The admission to everything is 25 cents, but tickets good for part admission are being distributed by all retail grocers.

The Palais Royal

Overwhelmed during the afternoon; less busy in the morning. Suppose we beseech you to come during the less-busy hours. How many would think they could conveniently respond? Suppose we make a great sacrifice of profits and demonstrate a considerable saving to you, in dollars and cents? We'll do so and make the opportunity one you cannot afford to let pass.

Tomorrow

From 8 o'clock Until Midday

Until the gong sounds. Promptly at midday the gong will resound through the Palais Royal, when regular prices will again prevail. Until then, from 8 until 12 o'clock, the following reduced prices will be asked:

- All $2 Articles at $1.77
- All $1 Articles at 89c
- All 50c Articles at 42c
- All 25c Articles at 21c

The Extremes

Presents From 25c to $100

These extremes earn a word of explanation and your careful reading. You know the rule—that cheap goods are too often cheap in the objectionable sense, and that expensive things are as often exorbitantly so. The reasons are: The stores where cheap goods are the rule are seldom selected with the artist's nature or training; the establishments where only expensive goods are a specialty have comparatively limited sales and not a few bad debts, necessitating big profits.

$3 to $100 Presents

At 10 Per Cent Discount

Palais Royal prices for high-priced goods are from 10 to 20 per cent less than prevailing for equal qualities. The 10 per cent deducted until midday tomorrow lowers the lowest prices.
